

WORKSHEET 2

Hilda and Caedmon

Fill in the missing gaps using the words below.

Hilda was the Abbess in charge of the monks and nuns at Abbey. One day, she heard a remarkable story from the Abbey farm. One of the workers in the had discovered an amazing, so naturally Hilda wanted to know all about it.

Caedmon came to see her, looking rather 'Well? What happened?' Hilda asked.

Caedmon couldn't talk very clearly - he was and had a bit of a stutter. 'I had a weird' he said. 'I saw a strange man who told me to sing a song. In the dream, I said I couldn't sing, but he wouldn't stop. In the end, I asked him what kind of song he wanted - and he said to sing about the of the world. So, in the dream, I did. But in the morning, I could remember every word. I can't normally remember any song words at all.'

'Could you sing it for me now?' Hilda asked. He nodded and an voice filled the room with beautiful sounds and words. Hilda was suddenly very excited. She read Caedmon a passage from the and challenged him to go away and use it to create more music. Next day, he was back with another new song! After that, he was given a job at the writing songs of praise to God and teaching others how to sing them.

Abbey dream talent Bible nervous Whitby creation nervous amazing talent

What songs or music make you feel good to be alive? Write about them here.

Exploring Christianity Creatively

www.barnabasinschools.org.uk